New Resource: No Escape Room

In response to the increasing global concern over sextortion, the National Centre for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) has launched a new tool aimed at educating teenage pupils and parents.

Introducing No Escape Room, an interactive film that empowers viewers by guiding a young male through various decision-making scenarios based on user input.

What is No Escape Room?

- Interactive Experience: Engage with a film that changes based on your choices, offering a unique, educational perspective on serious issues.
- Educational Tool: Designed to provoke discussion and provide insights into the dangers of sextortion, the importance of online safety, and strategies for protection and support.

Parents can use this tool to educate themselves and their children about online safety, helping to prepare and protect their families. Please access using the link below.
